Dot Praises Drivers for Logging 18 Million Miles with Appreciation Week

MT. STERLING, Ill. – Drivers based out of Dot Foods Inc.’s Mt. Sterling headquarters have traveled more than 18 million miles this year. In recognition of their hard work and commitment to being safe, courteous drivers, Dot held a Driver Appreciation Week Aug. 23-29 filled with home-cooked meals; inspection competitions to win Cardinals/Cubs tickets; ice cream and fruit; bottles of water; and gifts for drivers. Driver Appreciation Week is celebrated at Dot’s distribution centers across the country. Each distribution center determines how it will recognize its drivers.

Dot Foods Inc. carries 83,000 products from 500 food industry manufacturers and is the largest food redistributor in the United States. Dot Foods and Dot Transportation sell and deliver foodservice, convenience, retail, vending, equipment and supplies to leading distributors in all 50 states. Dot Foods operates nine distribution centers in: Modesto, Calif.; Vidalia, Ga.; Burley, Idaho; Mt. Sterling, Ill.; Joliet, Ill.; Cambridge City, Ind.; Williamsport, Md.; Liverpool, N.Y.; and Ardmore, Okla. For information, visit www.dotfoods.com.

Editor’s Note: Dot Foods is located at 1 Dot Way, P.O. Box 192, Mt. Sterling, IL 62353.

Mt. Sterling resident and driver Todd Welty struck a pose with his family in front of his truck after his kids got balloons and ate hot dogs.

Customer delivery specialists Janeen Scott and David Lott, both from Mt. Sterling, inspected a Dot truck as part of a competition. Participants who identified 10 out of 12 defects on a tractor/trailer were entered for a chance to win baseball tickets.
