Dot Foods Gives Back at Annual Christmas Party

Food redistributor collects 150 toys for Toys for Tots

ARDMORE, Okla. – Employees at Dot Foods' Ardmore distribution center celebrated at their annual holiday party with a "Dot Gives Back" theme, bringing in approximately 150 unwrapped toys to donate to Toys for Tots.

The Toys for Tots donation is just one outreach during the month of December. Dot's Ardmore employees have been giving back throughout the month of December, collecting food for Loaves and Fishes food pantry.

"As a family company, Dot is committed to helping people in the communities where we live and work," said MJ Sparks, human resources manager and chair of Dot's charitable giving committee. "Both of these organizations share our values and provide our employees with a way to get involved."

The Christmas party kicked off Dot's 50th anniversary in 2010 with a video commemorating the company's rich history. Activities included karaoke and door prizes.
