Dot Foods Donates Truckload of Food to Regional Food Bank

Food redistributor celebrates its 50th anniversary with a donation to Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma

ARDMORE, Okla. – Dot Foods recently loaded its 50th anniversary commemorative golden trailer and donated a truckload of dry foods and goods to Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma in Oklahoma City. The donation, delivered on Tuesday, July 13, marked the fourth stop for the trailer on its nationwide tour.

Dot Foods Inc. is celebrating its 50th year in business by donating 270,000 pounds of food to 11 regional Feeding America food banks near each of Dot's eight distribution centers. The donations will be delivered by the special golden anniversary trailer. Equivalent to $315,000, the food donation will include items such as canned fruits and vegetables, peanut butter, tuna, beans, rice and cereal.

Dot Foods Inc. carries 92,000 products from 500 food industry manufacturers and is the largest food redistributor in the United States. Dot Foods and Dot Transportation sell and deliver foodservice, convenience, retail, vending, equipment and supplies to leading distributors in all 50 states. Dot Foods operates eight distribution centers in: Modesto, Calif.; Vidalia, Ga.; Burley, Idaho; Mt. Sterling, Ill.; Cambridge City, Ind.; Williamsport, Md.; Liverpool, N.Y.; and Ardmore, Okla.
