Dot Foods Hosts Picnic for 50th Anniversary Celebration

CAMBRIDGE CITY, Ind. – Dot Foods continued to celebrate its 50th year in business by hosting a carnival-style picnic for employees and their families on June 5 in honor of the milestone anniversary. Held on the distribution center's lawn, the afternoon included food, drinks, games, contests, inflatable bouncers and a live band.

Libby Loyd, Dora Jones, housekeeping, and Teresa Harmer compete in a watermelon spitting contest

Live music was provided by Third Time Around, starring Scott Ross, warehouse order selector, and Terry Ferrell, maintenance supervisor, who were joined by Tim Loyd on the drums

Ryan Bullock, warehouse order selector, participated in the corn hole tournament with his daughter

In honor of its 50th anniversary, Dot Foods will be hosting various events for employees and the community throughout the year, including an Employee Recognition Day and a commemorative trailer that will deliver dry food to food pantries near Dot's eight distribution centers. Family Appreciation Days were held at each distribution center across the country in recognition of employees' hard work and Dot's birthday.

Rick Fasnacht, garage supervisor drove his way to first place for best car

Mike Harmer, driver, placed first in the hot dog stuffing contest

Rich Lushbaugh, warehouse order selector, was the proud winner of a hot dog eating contest
