Dot Maintenance Team Reaches Three-Year Safety Milestone

MT. STERLING, Ill. – The equipment maintenance department at Dot Foods Inc.'s Mt. Sterling headquarters reached a significant milestone this month – achieving three years without a recordable safety incident.

Each department member received a Garmin GPS as a reward for following safe practices. Larry Casteel, equipment maintenance manager, said the team achieved the milestone by following safety guidelines and looking out for each other through teamwork. "I hope every time they use the Garmin they're proud they earned it by being safe at work."
