LIVERPOOL, N.Y. – Dot Foods Inc. has tapped Howard Bryerton as the warehouse manager at its Liverpool location, which employs more than 240 personnel and redistributes food products to the greater New York and New England areas.

Bryerton, a former director with L&JG Stickley in Manlius, N.Y., has an extensive 25-year background in distribution, information technology, customer service and manufacturing. “Quality and customer satisfaction have always been top priorities at Dot,” said Brian Hall, general manager of Dot’s Liverpool distribution center.

“Howard’s impressive background and leadership abilities make him an ideal fit for our team.”

Bryerton, a resident of Liverpool, assumed his position April 16, getting acquainted with the warehouse, truck routes and work shifts. He holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Columbia College. In his free time, he referees soccer at high school, college and professional levels.
