Dot Foods Hosts Picnic for 50th Anniversary Celebration

WILLIAMSPORT, Md. – Dot Foods continued to celebrate its 50th year in business this past Saturday by hosting a carnival-style picnic for employees and their families in honor of the milestone anniversary. The afternoon included food, drinks, games, inflatable bouncers, music and warehouse tours for family members.

Employees and families enjoyed this delicious 50th anniversary cake.

Summer McClintock of Berkley Springs, Jason Shank of Hagerstown and Dustin Michael of Berkley Springs pose for the camera.

Bruce and Nick Zulauf of Greencastle battle it out on an inflatable bouncer game.

Ken Racine of Hagerstown waits for his fate in the dunk tank.

In honor of its 50th anniversary, Dot Foods will be hosting various events for employees and the community throughout the year, including an Employee Recognition Day and a commemorative trailer that will deliver dry food to food pantries near Dot's eight distribution centers. Family Appreciation Days were held on Saturday, May 22, at each distribution center across the country in recognition of employees' hard work and Dot's birthday.

Dot Foods Inc. carries 92,000 products from 500 food industry manufacturers and is the largest food redistributor in the United States. Dot Foods and Dot Transportation sell and deliver foodservice, convenience, retail, vending, equipment and supplies to leading distributors in all 50 states. Dot Foods operates eight distribution centers in: Modesto, Calif.; Vidalia, Ga.; Burley, Idaho; Mt. Sterling, Ill.; Cambridge City, Ind.; Williamsport, Md.; Liverpool, N.Y.; and Ardmore, Okla.
